Mongold Murder.

For killing his son, with a pistol, Israel Mongold received a five year sentence in Harrisburg on Saturday last. The case has been on trial for a week and the evidence disclosed the existence of a degree of depravity in Brooks Gap which would disgrace the Congo Free State. The children of the aged murderer have grown up in absolute ignorance of their moral responsibility and it developed that the existence of a God was unknown to them. Mongold shot his son for throwing a stick at and teasing him. He is seventy years of age, and undoubtedly mentally unsound, one of his hallucinations being a fear that Roosevelt intended starting a war in Brooks Gap. None of the jury favored acquittal but an appeal has been noted in case.

CHURCH NOTES.

Services were held in the Reformed church by Rev. N. H. Skyles.

Rev. H. M. Carter will preach at Pughs Run on Sunday afternoon at 3 p.m.

Rev. A. R. McGahee will commence a series of meetings of Wesley Chapel next Sunday night to run for two weeks.

The Rev. J. M. Tise will begin a protracted meeting in the Lutheran church at Fairview, on the 4th Sunday night and will continue over the 1st Sunday in Dec.

Communion services will be held in the Lutheran church in this place the first Sunday in December, conducted by Rev. Geo. E. Shuey, of Harrisonburg. Preparatory service at 2.30 Saturday afternoon.

Mr. K. Sakatsume, a Japanese student of Boston will lecture at Hope Chapel, Sunday morning at 10.30 o'clock and at Wesley Chapel at 7.30. All should turn out and avail themselves of this opportunity to hear a native Japanese tell of his own country. No admission. Collection taken for missionary purposes.

Rev. P. D. Stephenson, D. D., held the attention of large congregations at the morning and evening services in the Presbyterian church with able sermons. The story of Nicodemus was the subject for a portrayal of the beginning, middle and end of the christian life, at the morning service. The holy communion was administered. Rev. Dr. Stephenson being assisted by Rev. Wm. Crawford. Five Sunday school scholars were received into the church. The text at night was "As Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so the Son of Man must be lifted up." Services have been held each night in the Presbyterian church, beginning last Thursday.

Mr. Sakatsume, a Jap, educated at Boston University and a resident of this country for six years, gave an instructive and entertaining talk on Japanese manners and customs in the Methodist church last Thursday night. He made some striking comparisons between the customs of his native land and America, among other things stating that "in Japan children obey their parents while in this country, parents obey their children." The better class of Japanese girls are taught the artistic culture and arrangement of flowers instead of music as the American girls. Though the lecture was given in broken English, the larger part of the audience understood him and some of his trite and striking statements caused considerable merriment. Mr. Sakatsume is interesting people in the uplifting of the Orient, and will shortly return to the Island Empire.

Congregations which filled every available seat attended both the morning and evening services at the Methodist church Sunday. Rev. H. M. Carter used the parable of the feeding of the multitudes as a basis for a fervent appeal for more interest in the foreign mission work. "God commands his church to give unto the multitudes of the earth the bread of life" was the subject of the morning's message. Everything we have belongs to Him who created it and citing the case of the rich young man who came to Christ, he said that in the attainment of eternal life a complete surrender of everything is required of the true followers of the Nazarene. "Jesus never lays a command on a man, without giving him enabling grace to carry it out" was one of the truths enunciated. Mr. Carter attributed church apathy to selfishness, and reminded his congregation that the sums spent for useless personal adornment would go a long way toward the propagation of christianity. At night, fervently and eloquently he impressed his congregation with the great danger of turning a deaf ear to the voice of God's spirit. "My spirit will not always, strive with man" was the text, and the immeasurable love of God the predominating thought of the sermon. The musical features of the services were a duet in the morning by Mrs. Alice Haslett and Miss Alice Coffman, and a quartette composed of Mrs. Haslett, soprano, Miss Coffman, alto, Mr. Frank Bowman, tenor and J. L. Shaffer, bass, sang beautifully at night.

Another Echo of the Fisher Fiasco.

Through Herbert S. Larrick, a Winchester attorney Charles A. Fisher has brought suit in Frederick county for an absolute divorce from his wife, Mrs. Gurney Fisher. This time V. M. Fisher is mixed up in the nauseous affair that has had the center of the judicial stage in Shenandoah and Frederick counties for some months. The war and woof of the whole case is filled with sensational statements of the interested parties. Fisher claims that he has been offered $5000 to again live with his wife, but the developments in the Orndorff case, tried at Woodstock at the recent term of court persuaded him to quit her forever. It is to be hoped that the curtain will now bring down on the domestic tragedy, or comedy, which has kept the courts busy since June 6th 1906.

Injuries More Serious Than Supposed.

Mr. C. F. Didwick, the mail clerk between Lexington and Harrisonburg, a notice of whose accident appeared in the HERALD last week, is confined to his bed as a result of his injuries. His physician says that he will probably be confined to his bed for thirty days.

J. NEWTON COFFMAN DEAD.

Mr. Newton Coffman died at his home, near Harrisville, Wednesday evening, Nov. 24th. Mr. Coffman was a son of David Coffman of Columbia Furnace and a brother of Mr. John Coffman of Lantz's Mill. He was a member of the O. S. Lutheran church.

For the past two months his health had been failing rapidly and his death came as no great surprise to his friends and neighbors, though of course his family was by no means prepared for the blow. He is survived by his wife who was before marriage Miss Arbellia Swartz, a daughter of the late Wm. Swartz. The deceased was a young man aged about thirty-six and was a man who was exceptionally popular. Born and reared near Columbia Furnace he had become acquainted with a large number of people in this country, and was a consistent Christian gentleman.

The funeral occurred at 11 o'clock, Friday at Sand Ridge church, and the services were conducted by his pastor, the Rev. M. L. Pence. The interment was in the church graveyard. The family of the deceased has the sympathy of a large number of friends in their bereavement. He was buried by the Edinburg and Lantz's Mill, Lodges I. O. O. F.

DEATH OF REV. W. O. ROSS.

Rev. W. O. Ross who was Pastor of the Methodist Churches at Woodstock and Edinburg from 1873 to 1876 and who had been for a few years a retired Methodist preacher, died at Monroe, N. C., last Monday, aged 70 years.

He was buried at the Old Stone church, in Augusta county, last Tuesday afternoon. He is survived by his wife.

Rev. Mr. Ross, while he did not fill many, of the more prominent stations in the Baltimore Conference, was one of its strong men. He was an excellent preacher, an humble christian and a true friend. His death is deeply regretted by his friends on Woodstock circuit.

Death of Mrs. William Hockman.

Mrs. Joanna Hockman wife of Mr. William Hockman and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jno. E. Copp, formerly of this county, died at her home in Frederick county, on Sunday the 18th inst., aged 46 years. She was a consistent member of the Brethren Church, and a woman, of excellent personal qualities. Her death was a severe blow not only to her husband, but to her aged parents, who in their long and happy married life had not before been visited by the angel of death.

Her body was buried in Mt. Hebron Cemetery in Winchester on the following Tuesday. The funeral services were conducted by Revs. Dudley and Spiggle.

Franklin Davis Dead.

Franklin Davis died at Mandolin, Florida, on Sunday, Nov. 11th, aged 78 years.

Mr. Davis married Mrs. Elizabeth Howe, nee Miller, a native of this place. For some years, they spent a part of the time in Massachusetts and a part in Florida, but recently they resided in Florida, summer and winter.

Mr. Davis was a kind gentleman, who had formed many acquaintances in this neighborhood in his frequent visits to his wife's relations.

Sluggish Liver a Foe to Ambition.

You can not accomplish very much if your liver is inactive as you feel dull, your eyes are heavy and slight exertion exhausts you. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup stimulates the liver and bowels and makes you feel bright and active. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe and is mild and very pleasant to take. Orino is more effective than pills or ordinary cathartics. Refuse substitutes. Walton & Smoot.

Notice to Veterans.

All Confederate Veterans who have not been supplied with Crosses of Honor will apply as early as possible to the President of their nearest Chapter Daughters of the Confederacy. Those in and near Woodstock to Mrs. James Williams and those near Mt. Jackson to Mrs. Monroe Funkhouser. Third notice.

Sunday Night Fire.

But for its timely discovery, the home of Mrs. Julia M. Allen, corner of Court and Muhlenberg streets, would have been destroyed by fire Sunday night at ten thirty o'clock. The family were up stairs, when her son heard the roaring flames down stairs. The wood work at the end of the parlor and some furniture were burning fiercely but quick work extinguished the flames. Mr. M. W. Magruder, who carried insurance on the building, adjusted the damages thirty minutes after he had been informed of the fire.

The Weather Report.

The weather forecasts are sent to all the exchanges of the Shenandoah County Telephone Co. at eleven o'clock, each morning. These forecasts are made at 8 a. m., this reaching the exchanges from which they will be telephoned to any subscriber, about 14 to 18 hours earlier than the reports published in the city papers reach them.

All Present.

Messrs. J. W. Stickle, Davis district, N. M. Rhodes, Stonewall district, Geo. R. Golladay, Johnston district, James M. Painter, Madison district, John H. Hepper, Ashby district and Harper Zirkle, Lee district, were all present at the meeting of the Board of Supervisors on Tuesday. County Clerk M. B. Wunder entertained the board at dinner at his home.

A Wise Cat.

Miss Anna Williams has a cat "Tab" by name, that could give lessons to some of our hunters. During the present hunting season, she has caught and brought to the house eleven rabbits. She does not attempt to eat them. Another remarkable fact is that she did not begin her raid on rabbits before the hunting season.

DIDN'T SHOW UP.

Mr. T. Olney McCormick, of Philadelphia, largely interested in the development of ore lands on Cedar Creek, expected to lay before the Supervisors of Shenandoah a proposition contemplating the building of a railroad to the section of the county west of North mountain. For some reason Mr. McCormick failed to appear and the Board adjourned without having had the plan made known to them. Owing to the enormous demand for metallic ores and the rapid rate of their consumption, the day is not far distant when the splendid hematite ores of the Valley of Virginia will be sought for by furnace men. Even now a great part of the limestone used in fluxing is hauled into the Pittsburgh district from points east of the Allegheny mountains and the acquirement of the mesaba range of lake ores by the trust will force independent manufacturers to the development of the ore beds of Virginia and nearby States. When this time comes the building of railroads to the ore deposits will follow as a matter of necessity.
